

Student's Name: _____ Last four digits of SSN: _____

The Department of Education allows Financial Aid Administrators to take some special circumstances into consideration if the FAFSA does not accurately reflect a student's financial situation. These are generally situations that are uncommon or rare. This form is used to gather and document that information. If this form does not cover your situation, please contact the Financial Aid Office to see if it can be considered.

Please read the instructions carefully and pay attention to the special "NOTES" in bold type. Fill out each section that applies to you. If the FAFSA determined you are an independent student, you do not need to include parent information.

SECTION I – UNUSUAL EXPENSES (Place a check mark on all sections that apply)

A. _____ Unusual Medical Expenses

Amount paid for unusual or ongoing major medical expenses not covered by insurance in 2013? $ _____

NOTE: If you checked this item, you must also submit a copy of "Schedule A" of the 2013 federal tax form and canceled checks or paid invoices showing amount paid. Do not include cosmetic orthodontia.

B. _____ Elementary and Secondary Education Tuition for 2014-2015

List the amount of elementary and/or secondary school tuition that you will pay for your dependent children to attend school during the 2014-2015 academic year. Do not include college expenses or amounts covered by scholarships or waivers.

SECTION IV – EXPECTED 2014 TAXABLE/NON-TAXABLE INCOME & BENEFITS

You need to complete this section only if there will be less income in 2014 due to unusual circumstances.
 Please read these instructions carefully.

This section asks about income and benefits that you and your family expect to receive during the year 2014. List income up to now in the first column and project the rest of the year in the second column, then add them together in the third column. Please bring the totals to the bottom. Please don't include the student if the reduction is because of attending college in 2014. Only include data for those who have information on the student's FAFSA. Round amounts to the nearest dollar.
