Director of the Kairos Accelerated M.Div. Program (KAMP) Joint Faculty Position with Corban University and Western Seminary

Position Description

Position Begins: July 1, 2014

Salary and Rank: Commensurate with qualifications and experience. Full-time faculty position

Responsibilities: Primary responsibility is to oversee the KAMP joint B.A./M.Div. program. Duties include teaching undergraduate and graduate hours on both campuses, recruiting superior high school ministry prospects, advising Kairos students, facilitating communication between Corban and Western, representing and promoting the KAMP program in the Pacific Northwest.

Corban University and Western Seminary faculty are expected to be engaged scholars, effective teachers and active servants of the university/seminary and the community, and able to model the integration of faith and learning.

Qualifications

Education: Doctorate in the field of ministry from a regionally-accredited or Association of Theological Schools institution is required.

Experience: Significant vocational ministry experience is required. Administrative and teaching experience in ministry is preferred. Candidate should have a record of strong leadership skills and a demonstrated record of active participation in professional organizations.

Character: Candidates must have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and evidence a mature Christian faith, be in agreement with the Seminary and University's statements of faith, be committed to the integration of biblical principles in instruction and be willing to invest themselves in the development of staff and students. Candidate should also evidence good relational skills necessary to function effectively on a department team.

Application

Application should include a one page letter of introduction, completed application, current curriculum vitae, transcripts and a list of four references whom we may contact. Send to Bethany Dudenhofer, 5511 SE Hawthorne Blvd, Portland, OR 97215; bdudenhofer@westernseminary.edu.

Further Information

Dr. Greg Trull, Dean, School of Ministry, Corban University (GTrull@corban.edu)
Dr. Rob Wiggins, Academic Dean, Western Seminary (rwiggins@westernseminary.edu)

Corban University is a Christian university whose purpose is to educate Christians who will make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ. Western Seminary is a theologically conservative graduate school that focuses on trustworthy and accessible training for gospel-centered transformation. The university and seminary are accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities. Western is also accredited by the Association of Theological Schools. Corban provides a strong Bible-centered academic program with more than 50 majors and programs of study. Along with traditional and adult degree completion programs at the undergraduate level, Corban offers graduate teacher licensure programs and graduate degrees in education, business, counseling, and ministry. Western offers seven master's degrees, two doctoral degrees, one diploma, and four certificate programs -- all purpose-built to equip students to excel in impactful Christian ministry roles worldwide. A personal relationship with Jesus Christ is a requirement for all employees and students of both the university and seminary. Within these guidelines, it is our policy to provide equal opportunity to all applicants, employees and students and to not discriminate on the basis of gender, disability, race, color, national origin or age in access to, or treatment in employment.
