

Corban University
School of Ministry

Doctor of Ministry Program

Prepare for your role in building up the church.

CORBAN
SCHOOL OF MINISTRY

Doctor of Ministry

Prepare for your role in building up the church.

Are you a Christian leader looking for a professional doctorate degree that will help you...

- Develop an advanced understanding of the nature and purpose of ministry?
- Enhance your competencies in pastoral and ministry skills for today's world?
- Cultivate ongoing spiritual growth for yourself and those you serve?

One of the hallmarks of the Corban University School of Ministry is its focus on educating Christians who will make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ. The Doctor of Ministry degree (D.Min.) is the highest degree available to ministry professionals, providing students an opportunity to undertake advanced study in personal and ministry formation. Corban's School of Ministry provides excellent training that allows students to remain in their current ministry. With the creative use of modular delivery methods, we want to take ministry training to the ministry front.

Program Benefits

Convenient

- Finish your terminal degree in just four–six years (six modules and a dissertation)
- Begins each year in January and ends October 15
- Remain active in your current ministry without relocating
- Attend one single two-week residency per year
- Located near the Seattle airport
- Frequent, personal contact with D.Min. director and School of Ministry staff

Affordable

- Payment plans are available upon request
- Audit classes for a fraction of the cost (benefits spouses & master's students)
- VA benefits and generous church/organization matching scholarship

Diverse

- Study under specialists from top evangelical seminaries & organizations
- Receive training in multiple subject areas
- Interact with classmates in various ministry fields

Accredited

Corban University is regionally accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). This level of accreditation allows credits and degrees to be transferred to other regionally accredited universities and seminaries.

For more information:

Karen Pease, Director of Admissions
kpease@corban.edu
253-759-6104 x100 or 1-877-311-6104
www.corban.edu/ministry

About Corban

Founded in 1935, Corban University offers graduate degrees in business, counseling, ministry and education. It also offers bachelor's degree programs designed for working adults in business and psychology.

Corban's traditional undergraduate school offers more than 50 majors at its scenic campus in Salem, Oregon.

Corban is accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities.

It is the only Christian college in the Northwest to be consistently ranked by U.S. News & World Report in the West's Top 10 Regional Colleges.

The Corban Distinctive

Corban University trains graduates to succeed academically and to make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ. At Corban you will experience biblically-based programs that provide a uniquely Christian view on your profession or field of study taught by faculty members who have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Most importantly, your coursework will integrate biblical perspective with the knowledge and skills you need to succeed.

Degree Programs for Working Adults

Looking for a different graduate degree program? Corban also offers master's degrees in business, education and counseling that can be completed in as few as two years. Plus, Corban's state-approved professional licensure programs can train you to become a licensed teacher or licensed professional counselor in the state of Oregon.

Need to finish your bachelor's degree? In as few as 17 months, you can complete a bachelor's degree in business or psychology by taking classes entirely online or at our Salem campus. With Corban's Adult Degree Programs, you can make the most of the college credit you have already earned.

For more information: www.corban.edu/workingadults

5000 DEER PARK DRIVE SE, SALEM, OR 97317
4301 NORTH STEVENS STREET, TACOMA, WA 98407