2010-2012 (REV 7/19/11)

This major must include courses from two of three academic areas with a minimum of 18 hours in each of which 8 must be upper-division. A minimum of 20 upper-division hours are required in the major. The areas are to be selected with the approval of the academic advisors of each area. Students desiring this program must present a rationale for their selection of areas that will show how the interdisciplinary major meets reasonable academic and vocational objectives. The proposal must be approved by the division chair of each academic discipline and the Registrar of the university.

D grades in major courses will not count toward grad requirements
