

Corban University
Graduate Assistant - Sports Information

Corban University
DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS

APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Position Title: Graduate Assistant - Sports Information

Responsibilities: Assist the Sports Information Director with all aspects of an NAIA sports information office. Duties include operation of The Automated Scorebook (Statcrew), Stretch Internet for live stats, and Stretch/Wirecast for streaming; covering home events as a statistician, announcer, etc.; writing press releases and season summaries; marketing/managing promotional events; managing rosters, archives, and social media; update and enhance the web site; creation of movies through iMovie; and other duties as assigned.

Qualifications: Bachelor's degree and admission to School of Education or School of Business graduate program at the Corban University is required. Knowledge and experience of sports required. Previous participation in a sports information program preferred. The successful candidate will have a clear understanding of the NAIA philosophy and the role of physical education and athletics within a Christian, collegiate setting.

Appointment: 10-month

Tuition: $6,000 tuition remission (12 credits/year)

Application Deadline: The position will remain open until filled.

Starting Date: August 1, 2014 or soon thereafter

How to apply: Forward letter of application describing interest and qualifications for the position, resume, and names, addresses and telephone numbers of at least three professional references to:

Department of Intercollegiate Athletics
Sports Information Graduate Assistant Search
Attn: Danny Day, Sports Information Director
Corban University
5000 Deer Park Drive SE
Salem, OR 97317
E-mail: dday@corban.edu

Located in the Willamette Valley 45 miles south of Portland, Corban University is a private Christian University. The University sponsors 13 intercollegiate sports for men and women and is a member of NAIA and the Cascade Collegiate Conference.