As a Christian university, Corban is committed to providing a Christian education for life and service. We believe that the expectations outlined in the student Walkthrough are conducive to your personal growth and are in the best interest of the Corban community as a whole. Our community expectations are based on biblical principles, our local church support, our school history and responsiveness to today's culture. While we recognize that you may not have personal convictions wholly in accord with these responsibilities and standards, the purposes and ideals underlying them necessitate that you be willing to modify your own personal preferences and standards of conduct while associated with the University. If you cannot make needed modifications you should seek a living/learning situation more acceptable to you.

I hereby certify that I understand and accept the responsibilities of membership into the Corban community and will adhere to the standards of conduct outlined in the Student Handbook for the duration of my association with the University. I understand this includes breaks when classes are not in session and I will sign this contract each fall as an indication of my continued commitment.
