Application Process on Following Page

MISSION: To educate Christians who will make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Corban University invites applications for a part-time Assistant Debate Coach beginning August 2019 to support the planned growth of the Corban University British Parliamentary Debate Program. This position reports to the Debate Director and primary responsibilities will include teaching and tournament coaching. Candidate will serve as an adjunct instructor, teaching the one-credit CO211 Inter-Collegiate Debate course fall and spring semesters, which also serves as the weekly team practice.

The successful candidate will teach the subject matter in a manner that is consistent with the university's Statement of Faith. Candidate will travel with students to approximately eight tournaments per year, which will require van rental, driving, and a valid driver's license. Other duties include supporting the Director's recruitment, debate scholarship, mentoring, and curriculum and program development efforts.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS:

Education: Bachelor's degree required.

Experience: Competitive inter-collegiate debate. No previous debate coaching experience is necessary, but candidate must be willing to learn the British Parliamentary (BP) style of debate.

Character: The candidate must have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and evidence a mature Christian faith, be in agreement with the University's statement of faith, and be committed to the integration of biblical principles within the practice of debate. Candidates should value an environment that reflects the diversity of God's kingdom, engages in global concerns and connects culturally.

Faculty Overview

Corban University is a Christian university whose purpose is to educate Christians who will make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ. The university is accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities.

Corban provides a strong Bible-centered academic program with more than 50 majors and programs of study including professional, liberal arts, and ministries. Along with traditional and adult degree completion programs at the undergraduate level, Corban offers graduate teacher licensure programs and graduate degrees in education, business, counseling, and ministry. A personal relationship with Jesus Christ is a requirement for all employees and students. Within these guidelines, it is our policy to provide equal opportunity to all applicants, employees and students and to not discriminate on the basis of gender, disability, race, color, national origin or age in access to, or treatment in employment.

Institutional Statement

Corban University is a private comprehensive university of liberal arts, ministry, and professional studies with a mission to educate Christians who will make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ. All employees are expected to model servant leadership in all aspects of their work. Corban values and recruits for a workforce that is diverse in gender, age, ethnicity, race, and/or ability, and seeks employees who will interact with the Corban community in a way that reflects a commitment to cultural proficiency. Where permitted by law and consistent with the school's history, mission, and core values, Corban exercises religious preference throughout the University. Employees must have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, agree with the University Statement of Faith, evidence a mature Christian faith, and be an active member of a Bible-believing, Gospel-preaching local church.
