

UNDERGRADUATE Application
FOR ADMISSION

CORBAN

UNIVERSITY
800.845.3005 Fax: 503.585.4316

Dear Corban Applicant,

I am pleased that you are applying for admission to Corban University. The process is an important one and begins with the completion of this application.

Corban seeks applicants who desire a quality education, career preparation, opportunities to grow in every dimension of their lives and a caring community that is grounded in Christian values. Students attending Corban come from a wide variety of Christian backgrounds, but all bring a stated commitment to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Corban has a strong evangelical commitment and requires that each student be an evangelical believer. Corban reviews and admits students whose Christian commitment, academic records and moral character match those of the University.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or concerns as you complete our application. We look forward to getting to know you better!

With best regards,

Associate Provost for Enrollment Management

Application Instructions

Please choose the section below that applies to you. If you have any questions, please call the Office of Admissions at 800.845.3005 or 503.375.7005.

FRESHMAN

...is a student who has never enrolled in any college or university following graduation from high school. This includes a student who has less than 31 semester or 47 quarter college credits.

Freshman admission requirements:

- Personal Faith Statement
- Christian Character Reference
- If there is a question regarding a student's academic records or essay, an educational or personal reference letter may be required.
- Official High School Transcript — Corban recommends at least a 2.7 GPA. *Note to homeschool students: Students who cannot submit an official public/private high school transcript must substitute a list of all coursework completed during high school. A sample homeschool transcript and information packet is available from the Office of Admissions upon request.
- Official SAT or ACT Test Scores—Corban recommends a 900 combined score on the SAT Critical Reading and Math, or a 19 on the ACT (neither are required for Early Admit Program.). At this time Corban does not require the writing section of the SAT or ACT for acceptance decisions or for academic scholarship awards. We do ask that the writing sample be submitted for statistical purposes only. Note: Corban's SAT Code is 4956; ACT Code is O477.
- $40 Application Fee (nonrefundable)—Corban will waive the application fee if: the application is submitted before the Early Application Deadline, the applicant provides the College Board fee waiver, or submits a letter verifying family financial hardship.
- Official College Transcript (if you have taken any college courses while in high school).

TRANSFER

...is a student who has graduated high school any year previous to the upcoming school term and has taken any college classes after high school.

Transfer students with fewer than 31 semester or 47 quarter college credits may have to qualify for admission on the basis of SAT or ACT scores and academic records from both high school and college.

Transfer admission requirements:

- Personal Faith Statement
- Christian Character Reference
- If there is a question regarding a student's academic records or essay, an educational or personal reference letter may be required.
- $40 Application Fee (nonrefundable)
- Official College or University Transcript(s)—Corban recommends at least a 2.0 GPA

RE-ADMIT

...is a student who has previously attended Corban.

Call the Office of Admissions (800.845.3005) to have a Re-admit Application mailed to you.

Re-admit requirements:

- Christian Character Reference

- $10 Application Fee (nonrefundable)
- Official College or University Transcripts (if you have attended elsewhere since you left Corban)

EARLY ADMIT

...is a student who elects to take classes at Corban while a senior in high school. This program is limited based on overall enrollment. Requirements for the application are the same as an incoming freshman.

Once you have applied you will be assigned an admissions counselor and contacted by this individual. Any questions you have concerning admissions, financial aid, or housing should be directed to your admissions counselor. If your plans change and you do not intend to complete the application process or to enroll if accepted, please notify your admissions counselor.

DEPOSITS

If you are admitted to Corban you will need to submit a $200 Tuition Deposit by May 1st for Fall semester, or December 1st for Spring semester. Missing these deadlines for deposit may result in the applicant being placed on a wait list, thus losing the opportunity to enroll at Corban. This deposit is refundable or transferable to another semester only if the Office of Admissions is notified by the following dates:

- Fall semester applicants – May 1st
- Spring semester applicants – December 1st

You must be accepted by Corban before you can submit your tuition deposit. The $200 Tuition Deposit will be credited to your account with the Business Office.

HOUSING POLICY

Corban is a residential university. This means that all single students are required to live in the campus residence halls unless they qualify to live off campus by meeting any one of the following guidelines:

- Reside with parents or legal guardian
- Are 21 years or older
- Have completed two years at Corban

To reserve a room, each student is required to submit the Housing Application with a $100 Room Deposit. The deposit will be credited to your account with the Business Office. This deposit is refundable or transferable to another semester only if the Office of Admissions is notified by the following dates:

- Fall semester applicants – May 1st
- Spring semester applicants – December 1st

Room assignments are made based upon the date your Housing Application and deposit are received. However, you must be accepted by Corban before you can submit your Housing Application and deposit.

Most rooms accommodate two students. A limited number of rooms accommodate three or four students.

Personal Faith Statement

This brief faith statement adds to our picture of who you are, and it demonstrates your ability to express yourself through organized thought. In about 300 words, using 2-3 Bible passages to support your answers, please respond to the following questions: a) who do you believe Jesus Christ is, b) describe the circumstances surrounding your decision to become a follower of Jesus Christ and why this decision is important, c) describe your spiritual journey over the recent past using specific examples.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Lifestyle Responsibilities

As a Christian university, Corban is committed to providing a Christian education for life and service. It is our conviction that learning and the Christian faith are inseparable. We are committed to the Bible as our standard of faith and practice.

Therefore, our students are responsible for refraining from practices that are biblically condemned and for upholding the behavioral standards of our community. These require a Corban student to abstain from sexual impurity as well as the possession and use of federally-recognized illegal drugs. Responsible use of alcohol and tobacco is permitted off-campus and only by students of legal age (21 for alcohol and 18 for tobacco). Students should use care in their choice of entertainment and refrain from all morally degrading aspects of the theater, media and literature. Students are also responsible for being faithful in church, chapel and class attendance.

Are you struggling or have you struggled with lifestyle issues (drinking, smoking, drugs, sexual impurity, or degrading entertainment) that would conflict with these behavioral standards? ☐ Yes ☐ No If yes, please explain on a separate sheet of paper.

Have you ever been convicted of or plea-bargained to a misdemeanor, felony or other crime? ☐ Yes ☐ No If yes, please provide an explanation.

☐ I have read the above and understand that failure to comply with the standards of Corban may result in disciplinary action and/or dismissal from the institution. I also state that the information provided in this application is valid to the best of my knowledge.

I waive my right to review or access letters and statements of recommendation on my behalf. ☐ Yes ☐ No
